Dust a-Plenty for the Drivers and Passengers-Only Three Cars Penalized for Mishaps, However, Despite Bad-Condition of Roads-To Chicago Next

KALAMAZOO, Mich., July 12.—Never in the history of Glidden tours has there been such a dusty, dirty, travel stained bunch of tourists as reached this city this evening. In a blinding cloud of dust the forty-two carloads ploughed through the sand of this State in the run of 142.3 the sand of this State in the run of 142.3 miles from Detroit, and the roads were terribly rough; but in spite of the extra strenuosity of the occasion, especially for a first day event, only three machines were renalized, and two were in the little fellow squad, which is really not running for score but rather to finish in Kansas City. These were the McIntyre buggy and the Brush, driven by D. W. Russ, both of which found the going too rough for making time.

In fact the feature of the day was the bad condition of the roadway and the hospitality of the people along the route. Every little town had its quota of enthusiasts and throughout the entire distance the roads were lined with motorists from far and wide. Tire trouble made itself known early in the game and a great deal of it was experienced, due probably to the swinging of the machines as they careened from side to side. One car had three blowouts and another had two.

Jackson scored the greatest success of the intermediate places by its cordial re-ception at noon. The Chamber of Com-merce took the affair in hand and furnished box lunches, cigars, free gasolene and oil and water. This made a great hit with the tourists and will be remembered by them all. Ann Arbor, Albion, Marshall, Battle Creek and Augusta turned their people out in numbers to watch the passing cars.

The route to-morrow is to Chicago, a distance of 173.3 miles, and the running time is 8 hours and 40 minutes. The penalties of the three cars to-day were: For the Glidden trophy, Chalmers-Detroit, 1 point for material and labor in fixing a broken fender iron, for the Hower trophy, Brush, 6.8 points for material and labor in repairing onnecting rod bushing, and McIntyre, 29 points for lateness.

DETROIT, July 12.—With Mayor Philip Breitmeyer firing a big cannon as each car started on its 2,636 mile journey the annual Glidden tour from this city began this morning. The cars were lined up alongside the tent in front of the City Hali, where they have been parked for three days, undergoing technical inspection by Joe Tracy and a corps of assistants.

Five or six thousand enthusiasts crowded around the space in front of the City Hall and thousands more lined Michigan avenue, over which the cars were driven on the way to Kalamazoo, where the tourists rest to-night, 142-miles from here.

The schedule time for big cars was 7 hours and 10 minutes. Instead of sending the cars away according to their official tour numbers, which is the custom, the order of starting this morning was arranged according to the dates on which the entries were received by Chairman Hower.

After the thirty competing cars had been sent away Starter Ferguson and Mayor Breitmeyer started two non-competing press cars, 83, H. L. Bill, Chalmers-Detroit, four passengers: 76, George Schuster, Thomas, eight passengers, and Jess Illingsworth, Maxweli, four passengers, with the same ceremony as had attended the departure of the contestants. Dai H. Lewis in No. 98, Studebaker E. M. F., driven by George Meininger, and M. C. Reeves, in No. 97, Studebaker E. M. F., driven by R. J. May, left with the confetti bags at 7:30 o'clock this morning. Chairman Frank B. Hower, accompanied by Alfred Reeves and Charles J. Glidden, left in a Premier, driven by Ray McNamara, twenty minutes before the first competing car, and Donald McIntosh, in the Studebaker No. 81, the official press car, left a few minutes after the chairman. Cars 79 and 80, two press Studebakers, driven by G. W. Smithson and Harry McIntosh, respectively, began their day's journey from the other side of the campus soon after the competing cars began to leave. When he had despatched the other cars Starter E. L. Ferguson climbed into his Acme No. 96 and the tourists had officially started from Detroit. The Rapid Truck did not start.

All the cars in the tour have gasolene explosion engines except the White Steamer, which will use kerosene for fuel. All the gasolene cars have four cycle engines except the American Simplex, which is a two cycle machine. The McIntyre runabout is a high wheel, buggy type machine with solid tires. It was the only green car in the procession. It has a double cylinder makine.

One of the passengers in the Jewell runabout had a green lined straw helmet that drew many admiring comments from the spectators.

The spectators were particularly enthusiastic in their cheering when the three Chalmers-Detroit Bluebirds were lined up gready to start, but all of the contestants were applauded as they started away.

H. O. Smith, schairman of the committee of management of the American Motor Car Manufacturers Association and president of the Premier Motor Manufacturing Company, was in the mechanic's seat of the Premier miniature tonneau car driven by Cliff Waltman. Among the out of town notables who saw the start of the tour were Hayden Eames, Walter C. White and C. J. Forbes, Cleveland; James W. Gilson, Racine, Wis.; Edward E. Clapp, Atlanta; John O. Heinze, Lowell, Mass.; James H. Becker, Clyde, Ohio; Pat Hussey, Toledo; F. N. Joyce, Minneapolis, Frank N. Nutt, Chicago; Benjamin Briscoe and D. J. Maxwell, Tarrytown, N.Y. Col. C. A GAIN OF 19 PER CENT. IN THE JUNE BUILDING RECORDS.

A Maiden Lane Corner and a Loft Building in Mercer Street Figure in the Day's Trading—Sale of Old Field and Marine Club House at Whitestone, L. I.

The current number of the American Contractor says: "Statistics from some fifty building centres throughout the United States show an aggregate gain of 19 per cent. for June, 1909, over the same month last year. Thirteen cities show a loss of from 1 to 66 per cent. and the rest show a gain of from 1 to 670 per cent. Building operations have been crowded during the spring months and are easing up now for a new spurt in the coming months. While 19 per cent. is a modest gain, considering expectations, it nevertheless is exceedingly welcome. The figures are as follows:
